AUTO RIDE ENJOYED BY THE PRESIDENT

eaves White House for First Time Since Taken III with Cold Ten Days Ago.

Ten Days Ago.

President Wilsom left the White House yesterday for the first time since he was taken ill with a cold ten days ago. He rode for an hour in a closed limousine with his daughter, Miss Margaret Wilsom, and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, his physician. The "house pallot," which was the natural result of his day indoors, was apparent on his face as he left the White House, but when he returned it had given place to a more healthy color. It is the President's expectation now that he will be able to leave Washington for same point in the South, where he will spend his vacation, on Monday or Tuesday of next week. He will go to his train as soon as possible after signing the currency bill. No announcement will be made as to the resort chosen for the vacantion probably until the bill is signed.

The President has a number of places under consideration. He will take a vacantion of three weeks, whether Congress adjourns for so long or not. He has in mind to strengthen himself as thoroughter.
